

This company can be a good match for you. I see that you have a real need there to _____. The name of our company is LifesMiracle. The reason I chose this company personally is: I was looking for good nutrition. I had some health concerns, health problems, some pretty serious ones, and I got this information from _____. And I looked at the company and noticed that they had something very unique.

What it is, just to keep it simple, because I'm not a technical person, and, (but I've learned something about it,) but to keep it really simple, is that this product made from Goji, Açai, Mangosteen, and Maqui helps bring your body into balance because it's an Immunomodulator, and that helps you to be healthier. Maqui is right now the hottest nutrient on the market, and it's helping a lot of people.

It helps your body to absorb nutrition, deliver it to the cells better, and it helps the cells to assimilate the nutrition better. So you're getting better delivery and absorption.

So you know that all of the nutrition you're taking in is being used by your body... and to the important cells that it needs to get to.

And that's what really makes us the leader in the nutritional industry. The results that people have gotten, using our products, is putting us in the front of the wellness industry.

Do you think you can get out to the website right away? That really explains it a whole lot better than I could ever do.

Great.

I've got a few other calls that I need to make it's ____ o'clock now. If I gave you a call back at (one hour later) would you be available then?

Great, I'll talk to you soon!
